Trees Uprooted

'Sagar' cyclone effect: Rains likely to continue till May 25

Mysuru, May 21(SPN&NNN)- Heavy rains accompanied by strong winds continued to pound the city last evening also. Trees were uprooted in several parts of the city and branches came down in some other areas. However, no untoward incidents were reported. The rain is likely to continue till May 25.

The sun was beating down since yesterday morning but there was no indication of rain in the evening. However, at around 8.30 pm, there were strong winds blowing that resulted in falling of the branches in many places and uprooting of trees. It also raised dust storm causing problems for two-wheeler riders to negotiate the roads. This was followed by heavy rains resulting in disruption of traffic.

It rained heavily for nearly two hours and later the drizzle continued till late into the night which led to water-logging in several places including K.R. Circle. The water entered houses in low-lying areas putting the residents to lot of inconvenience.

Even on Saturday night it had rained heavily accompanied by strong winds. A tree was uprooted in the Police Commissioner's Office and a Police vehicle was damaged. This apart, the branches of trees near Nazarbad Police Station and other areas had fallen. A tree was found uprooted in front of a house in Siddartha Layout and another came down in Sriramapura during last night's rain.

25 mm rain, farmers happy

The amount of rain on Saturday was 27 mm, while last night it was 25 mm in city. "The wind speed when it began from Arabian Sea yesterday was 100 km per hour and by the time it reached Mysuru it was reduced to 5 km. The rain that is occurring now is due to cyclonic circulation called 'Sagar' cyclone effect," said Dr. C. Govindaraju, Professor (Plant Protection), Extension Education Unit, Organic Farming Research Station, Naganahalli, speaking to Star of Mysore this morning.

According to Dr. Govindaraju, such pre-monsoon rain will benefit the farmers and it is good for crops like paddy, ragi, black gram, green gram, sesame, horse gram, cowpea and field beans. This brings joy to the ryots, especially at a time when KRS is dry.

"Since the last ten years, the pre-monsoon showers (April and May) is more than the monsoon rain which sometimes is less than normal and again it picks up post-monsoon from September onwards. This month the total rainfall in the city is 83.4 mm and it is hoped that it will touch the average of 113 mm by the end of the month," he said.

The average rainfall from January till date is 106 mm and in the last 10 years it shows that pre-monsoon rain is heavy, while the monsoon rain decreases and post-monsoon it again increases, he said.

Rains till May 25

The pre-monsoon rains are likely to continue till May 25. The regular monsoon rains are expected to arrive in Kerala coast on May 29 and it is predicted that it will enter Karnataka by first week of June. However, there is not much rain in Kodagu district and only a few parts are experiencing slight drizzle.

Legacy from the past Plight of posterity

Lament by a marked section of public speakers about absence of old values in society of our times and clarion calls to the youth to imbibe those values don't seem to have many takers. As if to add insult to injury, many a youth can be heard questioning the relevance of the advisory coming from the old guard, arguing that only the exact opposite of every old value is the order of the day. The old timers find it embarrassing when they are reminded of the unedifying conduct of the netas as witnessed in the State during the days following the announcement of the polls to its Legislative Assembly by the Election Commission on Mar. 27, 2018, as widely reported in the media with graphic details. The fate of contestants in the just-concluded election who were found adhering to the avowed values prescribed by the pious flock to whatever extent is there for all to take note. Making vainglorious claims of doing good to the poor sections of the population, openly telling brazen lies, calling names, leading lavish life at public cost, hurting sentiments of the voiceless sections, deriding customs and beliefs, exploiting caste factor for selfish ends and so on are the norms of vote-seekers, aver the land's youth.

The ground rules of leading a life of fulfilment, as enunciated by the land's saints and sants of a distant past in the form of verses intelligible even to the unlettered sections facing outright rejection for various reasons are resting in the palm leaf bundles stored in institutions such as the Mysuru-based Oriental Research Institute (ORI). They are bound to vanish into thin air once the moths do the honour to the ancient script.

The fast-changing outlook to the old ways of living marked by weighing the pros and cons of giving up certain practices such as walking in favour of some other practices such as sticking to commuting even short distances by motorised vehicles on grounds of convenience and speed has been generously helped by advances in science and technology during the past 100 or so years like never before. Wisdom seems to be slowly trickling on the part of the literati about the harm mankind is bringing upon itself by discarding the avowed values and simplicity of life. Terms such as "reuse," "recycle," "biodegradability" and so on have arrived on the scene, although not making any impact on thoughts of arresting the journey of mankind from simplicity to complexity.

To make a long story short, the legacy of simple living from the past has sailed into the region of dreaming in the backdrop of a) Unchecked production of electronic devices, to be discarded after a short-term use, b) Automobiles which turn into scrap mass, c) Multistoreyed structures bound to come down in course of time leaving one to ponder over the plight of generations during posterity. The youth of the land owe it to themselves to take lead and act.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Karl Marx, who was born on May 5, 1818, did not have a middle name. It is not known whether that made him feel deprived but he did spawn a philosophy that was intended solely for the benefit of the deprived. Marx said revolt, throw this system out of the window, and hand over all productive assets (that is, capital) to labour. No one took a blind bit of notice for half a century until a bunch of disaffected and maladjusted men in Tsarist Russia adopted Marx in the same way as the nine apostles had adopted Jesus. But where Jesus' apostles preached love to change the world, Marx's followers preached violence. The Tsar, no slouch at violence himself, retaliated with knobs on and thus the seeds were laid for the violent streak in Communism. This was stated most succinctly by another apostle, Mao Zedong, who, in 1927, said political power grows out of the barrel of a gun. — In Business Standard.

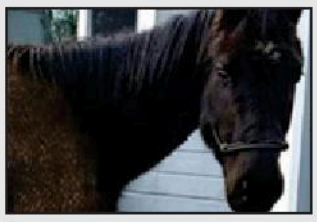
Neglected horse sues former owner



Oregon: A woman who allegedly left her horse outside during the winter without adequate care and shelter, causing it pain and suffering, is now being sued by the animal for more than $100,000 in damages. Justice, the horse in this particular case, is listed as a plaintiff in the legal action against its former owner, and, just like a human, has a team of lawyers fighting on its behalf.

It's not every day you hear about horses taking humans to Court, but in States like Oregon this sort of thing has been possible ever since 2014, when the Oregon Supreme Court ruled that animals can be victims of crime and have legally protected rights.

According to Justice's legal team at the Animal Legal Defense Fund in Portland, the eight-year-old horse has suffered a great deal of pain and suffering as a result of his former owner's neglect and is entitled to a substantial amount of money that should go toward his current and future care and medical treatments.

Ladybugs on remote Radio Tower

Mount Burr: A remote radio tower near Mount Burr in South Australia has attracted millions of ladybugs for reasons no one know.

The unusual sight was recently reported by wildlife photographer Steve Chapple, who posted several photos and a video of it on his Facebook page. Chapple said that he was told by a friend about this place where ladybugs would sometimes converge in the thousands, seven years ago, but their number has since increased manyfold.

This year, there appear to be millions both on the ground and on the radio tower itself.

CESC Central Complaints No. 1912 inaccessible!

Sir,

CESC has provided 1912 phone number for the Central Complaints section to register power supply related complaints 24x7. It is a good service by the CESC to its consumers.

But this telephone will become very busy when there is total power supply failure in a feeder which feeds thousands of houses in an extension of Mysuru city. We are unable to contact during emergency. Yesterday night there was heavy wind and rain in J. P. Nagar. A big tree branch fell on the secondary power lines at E-Block, J.P. Nagar. This telephone was completely engaged and I could not intimate the snag in the power supply lines.

I request the authorities concerned to look into this and solve the problem. Earlier in each area wise, a service station was provided with separate telephone and an operator, for registering the complaints. Now the 'central complaints' has been established with 1912 telephone which covers the entire city of Mysuru.

Garbage woes near Hinkal apartment

Sir,

I am a resident of Manasa Castle Apartment, Hinkal and it is a shame for me to tell that demolished building debris and other wastes are being dumped next to our apartment at Chanakana Kere grounds.

Tractors were seen dumping loads of these building wastes. When notified MCC about the clearance of the debris, it was denied as they said the area came under the Panchayat limits and not under MCC.

The residents are facing a lot of trouble as some of the waste materials are set on fire and the smoke gets into the flats, causing health issues for the inmates. I request the authorities concerned to help us by taking proper measures to dispose the waste materials.

To mark 150th birth anniversary of Gandhiji

New Delhi, May 21- If a proposal from the Railways is approved, October 2 will not only be celebrated as Rashtriya Swachhta Diwas, but also as 'Vegetarian Day' as a mark of respect to Mahatma Gandhi.

The Railway Board has proposed that no non-vegetarian food will be served to passengers on Railway premises on Oct. 2 in 2018, 2019 and 2020 when the Central government has planned a special commemoration of the 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, according to a blueprint prepared by it.

Besides observing 'Vegetarian Day', the Railways plans to run a 'Special Salt Rake' from Sabarmati on March 12 to commemorate the Dandi March and 'Swachhata Express' trains from Sabarmati to various stations connected with Gandhiji. The national transporter will also issue tickets with watermark of Mahatma Gandhi's image.

According to Railway Board, its plans are subject to approval from the Ministry of Culture which is the nodal Ministry for the special commemoration.

In a circular to all Railway zones last month, the Railway Board said, "Oct. 2, 2018, 2019, 2020 can also be celebrated as a totally vegetarian day when no non-vegetarian food will be served anywhere on Indian Railways premises. All the Railway staff will be requested to observe the day as Vegetarian Day."

The plan also includes thematic painting of all stations connected with Mahatma Gandhi and setting up of digital museums there, depicting significant activities undertaken by the Father of the Nation.

A special logo designed by the Ministry of Culture has also been proposed to be displayed outside a train coach near the doorway where seat numbers are displayed, so that it can be seen by the public.

Congress in a dilemma over Dy.CM post

Dr. Parameshawara D.K. Shivakumar M.B. Patil S.R. Patil H.K. Patil Shymanuru

Bengaluru, May 21 (ACP& DM)- After successfully stitching up a post-poll tie up with JD(S) to oust the B.S. Yeddyurappa (BSY) Government, the Congress now seems to be in a dilemma over the Deputy Chief Minister's (Dy.CM) post.

Soon after the Congress-JD(S) tie up, speculations were rife that KPCC President Dr. G. Parameshwara will become the Dy.CM. But now as there are too many aspirants for the post, the Congress is said to be working out a formula to have two Dy.CMs. While the Veerashaiva-Lingayat lobby is working overtime to have one of its senior MLA as Dy.CM, another group is said to be backing D.K. Shivakumar, who played a key role in keeping the Congress flock intact ahead of BSY's Floor Test held on Saturday.

With the Veerashaiva-Lingayat Community said to be peeved over Lingayat leader BSY being prevented from occupying the CM's post, the Congress is said to be ruling on appointing a Veerashaiva-Lingayat senior MLA as the Dy.CM.

However, lobbying has intensified among community leaders with former Minister M.B. Patil, senior Legislators S.R. Patil and H.K. Patil, vying with each other for the plum post.

Meanwhile, the Akhila Bharatiya Veerashaiva Mahasabha has urged CM-designate H.D. Kumaraswamy to make senior most MLA from Davanagere Shymanuru Shivashankarappa as the Dy.CM.

Even as lobbying is picking up for the Dy.CM's post, Dr. Parameshwara and former CM Siddharamaiah have said it is the party High Command which will take a final call on the issue.

DVS predicts fall of Congress-JD(S) Government in three months

Union Minister D.V. Sadananda Gowda addressing press persons in Mandya yesterday.

Mandya, May 21 (NG&DM)- Maintaining that the Congress-JD(S) coalition Government would not last long, Union Minister D.V. Sadananda Gowda (DVS) has said that the coalition Government will slip into disarray over Cabinet formation.

Speaking to press persons here yesterday, Sadananda Gowda predicted that Congress-JD(S) coalition may not survive beyond three months.

Pointing out that Congress and JD(S) leaders had used unparliamentary language against each other in the run-up to the Assembly polls, he said that the Congress-JD(S) post poll alliance was a most opportunist one, solely aimed at grabbing power through back-door.

Asserting that the BJP which bagged 104 seats had the people's mandate, he said that both Congress and JD(S) had betrayed the voters.

Discussing allegations that the Governor misused his office, Gowda said that the Governor was right in inviting BJP to form the Government as it was the single largest party.

Sriramulu warns of BJP aggression

B. Sriramulu

Ballari, May 21- Warning the Congress - JD(S) coalition that BJP would not let the Government sleep unless it meets the aspirations of the people, the party's fire-brand leader and Molakalmuru MLA B. Sriramulu has said that the BJP, as the Opposition party, will be more aggressive in the future.

Speaking to press persons here yesterday, Sriramulu said that the Congress-JD(S) had joined hands as the leaders of both the parties were scared of former Chief Minister B.S. Yeddyurappa (BSY) ordering a probe against them for the massive scams that they were involved.

Launching a tirade against the Congress for bending its knees before the JD(S) which has secured just 38 seats to save itself and grab power through the back-door, Sriramulu said that he would expose both the Congress and JD(S) in public.

Alleging that the Congress set up Anti Corruption Bureau (ACB) only to save itself, the Molakalmuru MLA said that he would unearth scams of the Congress Government, which had indulged in massive corruption during its five-year rule.

Mysterious Nipah virus
kills 3 of a family in Kerala

Centre sends team to visit affected Kozhikode district

Thiruvananthapuram / New Delhi, May 21- After three confirmed deaths from the mysterious new "Nipah virus" in Kerala's Kozhikode, the Centre has sent a team to Kerala. Union Health Minister J.P. Nadda has asked the chief of the Central Disease Control Body to visit the affected district and take steps.

The Director of National Centre for Disease Control is expected to lead the team and work with the State Government to try and contain the infection.

Three of the 10 deaths caused by a mystery viral fever in Kozhikode were confirmed to have been caused by the Nipah virus, the National Institute of Virology (NIV) in Pune has said. The Nipah virus is a lesser studied virus, which the World Health Organisation calls "a newly emerging zoonosis that causes severe disease in both animals and humans." There are no known drugs or vaccines to treat it. According to NIV director Dr. Devendra T. Mourya, the virus has been causing "focal outbreaks in very rare situations among humans who accidentally come into contact (with the virus) from bats."

The first fatalities in Kozhikode were two siblings in Changorath Panchayat of Kozhikode. Twenty-three-year-old Sabith's death on May 5 did not initially raise alarms, but when his 26-year-old brother Salih died on May 18, the situation took a serious turn. Their aunt, 50-year-old Miriam, died a few days later.

Snake fight attracts onlookers

A fight between two male rat snakes at the park near the Deputy Commissioner's Office in Mysuru on Saturday afternoon attracted curious onlookers, who stopped their vehicles to watch the fight between the two reptiles. Many were seen capturing the fight scene on their mobile phones which lasted for about half-an-hour and the two snakes went in opposite directions after the fight. While some said that one would be lucky to watch the scene, many others were seen saying that it was a sin to see the snakes mating. Meanwhile, Snake Shivu, a snake-rescuer of city, confirmed that the two rat snakes were males and were fighting.

Poverty fails to deter them from treading a path to success

Mysuru, May 21 (SV)- It is rightly said that when one is passionate and determined to reach his or her goal, no barriers can stop them. Here is an inspiring story of two students belonging to Mysuru — S. Arun Kumar (banana seller's son) and L. Priyanka (auto driver's daughter). Students of Sankalpa Gopalaswamy Pre-University College in Mysuru, both of them, despite coming from a financially weak background, have set an example that with hard work and dedication, one can achieve their dreams and pave their successful careers.

Star of Mysore spoke to these achievers who have cleared their competitive exams and have made their parents and teachers proud. They were driven by passion and determination and have excelled in their areas of interest.

Banana seller's son qualifies to be junior scientist

S. Arun Kumar, a 2nd PUC student of Sankalpa Gopalaswamy PU College, has cleared the reputed KVPY (Kishore Vaigyanik Protsahan Yojana) Junior Scientist Exam conducted by the Indian Institute of Science (IISc). He is the son of Shivanna and S. Manjula. Shivanna is a banana seller while Manjula is a daily wager who ensured that their son gets good quality education.

Arun was determined to make his parents proud and worked hard to excel in his studies. Speaking to Star of Mysore, he said, "I stand 744th in the All India ranking in this Junior Scientist Exam. I used to attend the special training classes that were conducted in my college which helped me a lot in preparation for this exam. Now according to my ranking, my seat will be allocated."

On his further studies, Arun said, "If I consider my All India Ranking, I will easily get a seat in IISER (Indian Institute of Science Education and Research), Pune. But if I consider my category ranking I will get a seat in IISc., Bengaluru. So I look forward to join IISc and become a scientist. I will be choosing Physics as my area of research and studies. When I completed my SSLC exam, I had no clue of what to do next as I have no interest in Commerce or Arts. Now I look forward to become a scientist."

In his ninth standard, Arun was selected to go to Shivamogga to take part in the Yuva Vignani competition and he caught up an interest of becoming a scientist. Being from a poor background did not deter him from achieving his goals. He left no stone unturned as he worked day in and day out to live his dreams. The college supported him by offering a scholarship of Rs.1.4 lakh and was also provided training for KVPY exams. Arun will now get admission at IISc based on his merit. Other than KVPY, Arun has also qualified JEE exams for admission to NIT/IIT and scored excellent marks in 2nd PUC (96.33%).

Manjunath, Principal Suresh Yadiyal and Head Master Ram Prasad.

MOTHER SPEAKS

Arun's mother Manjula said: "We wanted him to study and pursue whatever he liked. We did not have much educational background but we wanted to ensure that he gets good quality education and pursues whatever he likes to do."

She particularly remembered the special role of her son's High School teacher Aishwarya who identified his talent and tapped his potential and requested the PU College authorities to offer scholarship.

COLLEGE OFFERS HELP

College authorities appreciated Arun's parents. Academic Head Akshay Rao said, "When they came for admission enquiry after Class 10th, we were impressed by the interest taken by his parents (who did not have much educational background) regarding the education of their child. We immediately approved scholarship for Arun considering his talent, financial instability and keen interest of his parents. If all private Institutions provide at least 4 to 5 scholarship seats for such poor students, our country will get many more talents."

At a time when toppers from every institute either join medical or engineering, there is an acute shortage of scientists in our country which has produced so many scientists in the past. Quality research and innovation is essential and it is the need of the hour. And those who want to do research join B.Sc.

KVPY exam is an initiative by the Government to help students achieve their dream of becoming a scientist. Now that Arun has cleared that exam, he will be studying at IISc and will also receive the KVPY scholarship of Rs.5,000 per month and a yearly contingency grant of Rs.20,000.

"When Arun came here, he wasn't sure of what career he needs to choose. But here at our college we provide career counselling and encourage students to take up competitive exams and provide special training. He was regular to extra classes where we trained students for KVPY exams. He put in all the hard work, and now he has achieved it," Akshay said.

The course at IISc is an integrated course and after the course, Arun will be eligible to directly do Ph.D.

"We are also expecting him to get a rank in the CET and we are sure that he will be one of the district toppers. Arun has utilised the scholarship and the support from his family well and has put his head down and studiously put efforts to achieve his own destiny," he added.

Auto driver's daughter passes JEE

L. Priyanka, a 2nd PUC student of Sankalpa Gopalaswamy PU College, is the daughter of auto driver Lakshman and a house wife, N. Sujatha. Priyanka always wanted to become an engineer and her determination and passion has driven her to achieve it.

She has now passed Joint Entrance Examination (JEE) and is now eligible for admissions at NIT/IIT for Engineering. She has also delivered excellent results in 2nd PUC exams by scoring 93.7%. She was also offered Rs.1 lakh scholarship by the college.

College authorities were singing praises in favour of Priyanka's father.

They said: "Priyanka's father used to visit to the college almost twice a week to enquire about his daughter's progress. We were so happy to see his interest in her education. He was so concerned about his daughter's education that he wanted to monitor her every step. He is a role model as an ideal father from low-income society and their story should send a message across that 'Girl Child Education' is important."

L. Priyanka and her father congratulated by college Correspondent N.R Manjunath and other college faculty.

'Sri Ganapathy Swamiji spreading message of Hinduism across globe'

Mysuru, May 21 (SBD&NNN)- "Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Swamiji is a Seer who has been successfully spreading the message of Hinduism through his numerous tours across the globe," said Srimad Abhinava Vageesha Brahmatantra Swatantra Parakala Mahadeshikan of Sri Parakala Mutt, Mysuru.

He was speaking after inaugurating the 76th birthday celebrations which coincides with the 19th Brahmotsava of Sri Datta Venkateshwara Kshetra and 20th anniversary of Nada Mantapa at Nada Mantapa, here yesterday.

He said that there was a deep relationship between the Parakala Mutt and Sri Ganapathy Swamiji since many years. The Swamiji, through his personal efforts, is championing the cause of Hinduism and that too through its most sacred text — Bhagavad Gita. "Let God give him more strength to propagate the message of Gita," said the Parakala Mutt Seer.

Former Minister and newly-elected MLA S.A. Ramdas said, "When I was in trouble, the Swamiji whom I always call Appaji, stood by me, blessed and gave me mental strength to face the problems. Only because of his support, I was able to win back the confidence of the people and came back as an MLA. After I took oath on Saturday, this is the first public function I am attending and I think it has been worth it."

"As an MLA I am making a promise that I will visit each house in the K.R. Constituency from tomorrow itself and make a list of the people staying in rented houses. I will make all efforts to see that within the next four years, all of them will be living in their own houses. Also, I will see to it that during Swamiji's next birthday at least 25 percent will have their own houses and he will distribute the keys to the beneficiaries," he assured.

Sri Parakala Mutt Seer Srimad Abhinava Vageesha Brahmatantra Swatantra Parakala Mahadeshikan inaugurating the 76th birthday celebrations of Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Swamiji at Sri Avadhoota Datta Peetham in city yesterday as Sri Ganapathy Swamiji, Sri Datta Vijayananda Theertha Swamiji and MLA S.A. Ramdas look on.

Recalling that in 2008, the Assembly election was held during the birthday celebration of the Swamiji, he said, "At that time I was in the Ashrama itself and I got the news that I had won by a margin of 18,000 votes. Ten years later, in 2018, I have come back as MLA with the blessings of the Swamiji and the people's confidence."

The Swamiji, who wanted a person who can protect religion and democracy, came all the way from France and directly went to the polling booth to cast his vote. Thus, he spread the message of sacredness of voting, he said.

It was my mother and Appaji who shaped my life. The Swamji asked me not to accept defeat and runaway like a coward but instead stand up and fight. The five years I was in political hibernation, I tried to do some useful work, he recalled.

The Junior Pontiff, Sri Datta Vijayananda Theertha Swamiji, was present. Earlier, puja was offered to Sri Datta Venkateshwara Swamy's idol. Sri Ganapathy Swamiji by wearing the Mahotsava Kankana launched the eight-day long programmes.

On the occasion, 'Gurudutta Vani,' a Marathi translation of the Swamiji's work 'Sukti Manjari' by Maharashtra's Vishalakshi, was also released.

Today (May 21) at 6.30 pm there is Hindustani vocal concert by Jayateerth Mevundi at Nada Mantapa.

Kaverappa, former President of Kodava Cultural and Sports Club P.K. Somaiah, theatre artiste Mandya Ramesh, District Kannada Sahitya Parishat President Dr. Y.D. Rajanna, Mysore Art Gallery Secretary Dr. Jamunarani Mirle and others look on.

Mysuru, May 21 (US)- An exhibition of paintings in water colour brought out by artist H.P. Rangaswamy was inaugurated at Bharani Art Gallery in Vivekanandanagar here yesterday.

The paintings were mostly focussed on nature and vividly depicted the correlation between change of seasons and adaptations of the greenery. The paintings give an insight to climatic changes and response of nature which many people fail to notice and relish, possibly being too pre-occupied with daily stress.

Former President of Kodava Cultural and Sports Club P.K. Somaiah inaugurated the expo.

Speaking on the occasion, theatre artiste Mandya Ramesh observed that the concept of art in various forms originated from adivasis and added that theatre comprises all variants of any art.

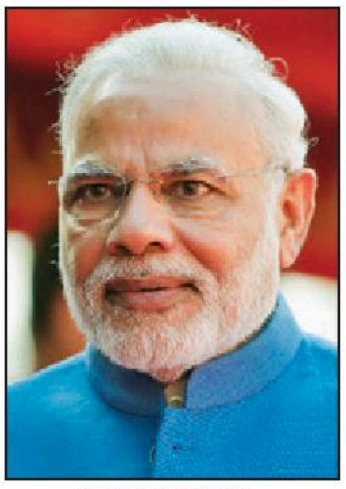
The expo is organised by Bharani Art Gallery as part of its 24th anniversary. The entry is free and is open daily from 10.30 am to 7 pm. The expo concludes tomorrow.

Sree Kalanikethana School of Arts Principal K.C. Mahadeva Shetty, District Kannada Sahitya Parishat President Dr. Y.D. Rajanna, Gallery Founder and senior artist N.B. Kaverappa, former CAVA Dean Ramdas Adyantaya, artist H.P. Rangaswamy and others were present.

Post Karnataka fiasco: BJP looks for the 'fall guy'

Prakash Javadekar

Amit Shah



Narendra Modi

New Delhi, May 21 (UNI)- Did BJP miss the services of leaders like Ram Madhav and Himanta Biswa Sarma in Karnataka?

In the wake of unceremonious exit from the corridors of power in Karnataka, a quick soul searching and analysis have already begun in the BJP camp and there is a sense that Union Minister Prakash Javadekar could be made the 'fall guy' as the party could have avoided the embarrassment of losing out in number game in the last moment.

"The sacrifice we made in the form of B.S. Yeddyurappa's resignation could have carried more weight had we given the chance of government formation to the JD(S)-Congress combine in the first place itself," a party leader said.

The blame could also go to B.S. Yeddyurappa as he reportedly insisted that requisite numbers can be managed. The fact of the matter is there was a fault line in ground assessment and probably the move to insist for formation of BJP government was guided by "over confidence".

There is also a feeling that unlike the past, the Congress preparedness for post poll machinations was much organised and smooth than BJP's as immediately after the exit polls, the top leadership of Congress got in touch with the JD(S) supremo and former Prime Minister H.D. Deve Gowda and enlisted the services of some prominent Third Front leaders including Sitaram Yechury to reach out to Deve Gowda.

According to sources, no less than UPA Chairperson Sonia Gandhi got in touch with Yechury and leaders like K. Chandrasekhar Rao (TRS) and Mayawati (BSP) to ensure that Deve Gowda is "assured well of the Congress sincerity" in extending unconditional support for Chief Ministership to JD(S).

B.S. Yedyurappa

> "The sacrifice we made in the form of B.S. Yeddyurappa's resignation could have carried more weight had we given the chance of government formation to the JD(S)-Congress combine in the first place itself."
> — A party leader

Moreover by May 14, a galaxy of Congress leaders including Ghulam Nabi Azad, Ashok Gehlot and K.C. Venugopal were already camping in Bengaluru and keeping themselves informed at the ground zero.

On the other hand, the poll in-charge of BJP, Javadekar was in Delhi on counting day (May 15) and thus the quick reflex actions of the BJP — which was visible in States like Goa and Manipur — was somehow missing.

The BJP sources maintained Javadekar as poll incharge had earlier handled Manipur elections in 2017 too, but in the North Eastern State, the job of trouble shooter was for the saffron party-led alliance was mostly piloted by Assam Finance Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma and the party General Secretary Ram Madhav.

In fact, the absence of Madhav in the power game in Karnataka was a puzzle for many as he has in the past successfully handled BJP's government formation in Jammu-Kashmir and also states like Nagaland.

According to BJP sources, there was possible lack of keenness to ensure the survival of "minority" government of Yeddyurappa as perhaps the party leaders knew about the limitation of getting support from MLAs from other parties.

In fact, the Prime Minister Narendra Modi not only skipped the oath taking ceremony of Yeddyurappa, but he also did not share his sentiment about the return of the BJP to power in the southern State on twitter. Curiously on May 17 morning, Modi spoke to Deve Gowda and conveyed him birthday wishes.

"Spoke to our former Prime Minister Shri HD Deve Gowda Ji and conveyed birthday wishes to him. I pray for his good health and long life," he later tweeted.

BJP Chief Amit Shah, who camped himself for two months during the whirlwind election campaign in Karnataka, also stayed away from the swearing in.

In the ultimate a section of BJP leaders wonder how the party strategy was thwarted on every move both politically and legally.

The episode has definitely hit BJP's high moral standing as media reports and social network were abuzz with allegations of BJP leaders getting caught while trying to offer bribe to the probable defectors from the JD(S) and the Congress.

Staunch JD(S) follower walks barefoot to Tirupati

This Hinkal man had vowed for HDK to become CM, GTD to win

Mandya/ Mysuru, May 21 (Nagaiah&NNN)-A staunch JD(S) follower, who had made a vow that if G.T. Devegowda (GTD) wins from Chamundeshwari constituency and H.D. Kumaraswamy (HDK) becomes the Chief Minister, he would walk to Tirupati, has embarked on foot to the temple town as both his wishes have come true.

Wrestler Venkatesh, 48, is the person who made the vow and is now on his way to Tirupati to fulfil it.

Pailwan Venkatesh (as he is called), son of L. Marigowda, originally hails from Melapura village in Srirangapatna taluk and now resides in House No.140 on Hosabeedi in Hinkal village in Mysuru.

A staunch follower of JD(S), Pailwan Venkatesh had a made a wish that even this time GTD must win by a huge margin in Chamundeshwari constituency.

He had also vowed that in case of a hung Assembly in Karnataka, Kumaraswamy must emerge as the Chief Minister and if both the wishes are granted by Lord Venkateshwara, he would walk to Tirupati to fulfil his vow. Thus he embarked on a journey to Tirupati from Hinkal on Saturday on foot via Mysuru-Bengalur highway.

He was wearing a white T-shirt emblazoned with photos of HDK and GTD along with the JD(S) symbol and blue coloured shorts.

He reached Mandya yesterday morning and met JD(S) youth leaders Yoganand, Pradeep, City Club Director Rammanna and others who welcomed him with garlands.

Pailwan Venkatesh, after passing through Chennapatna, will reach Ramanagaram this evening where former MLA and wife of HDK, Anita Kumaraswamy, will greet him.

"My father will take six to seven days to reach Tirupati. After completing his vows, he will return to the city by train," said Venkatesh's son H.V. Girish, speaking to SOM this morning.

Pailwan Venkatesh's family

Pailwan Venkatesh drives an autorickshaw in his spare time while running Balaji Juice Centre in three places including Hinkal, Hootagalli and Yelwal. He is a wrestler from the Nadakusti (traditional wrestling) family. He recently won the title 'Mandya Kesari' at the Wrestling Tournament held there, besides bagging several other titles.

A la Dangal movie based on a true life story of wrestler Mahavir Singh Pogat, Venkatesh has also trained his two daughters to become wrestlers. The elder daughter Rani has won gold and silver medals in National Wrestling Championships. The younger daughter Radhika has also won three gold medals. His son H.V. Girish is pursuing his M.Tech in Vidyavardhaka College of Engineering.

Venkatesh, who hails from such a family of achievers, has become the toast of the city, for his resolve to embark on foot to Tirupati to complete his vows.

MLA Eshwarappa asks BJP activists to focus on Council Polls

MLA K.S. Eshwarappa is seen addressing party activists at a meeting held at Rajendra Bhavan on Ramanuja Road here this morning as other leaders look on.

Mysuru, May 21 (US&PM)- With Legislative Council Polls from Teacher's Constituencies scheduled to be held on June 8, District and City BJP Units had organised a meeting of BJP activists at Rajendra Bhavan on Ramanuja Road here this morning.

Addressing the party activists, MLA K.S. Eshwarappa asked the party members to focus on Council Polls and told them not to be disheartened by BJP not coming to power in the State. He asserted that the unethical and opportunistic alliance between Congress and JD(S) would not last beyond three months owing to simmering disgruntlement on sharing of Ministerial berths. He asked the activists to garner support for Council polls which would be a stepping stone for future success.

Meanwhile, MP Shobha Karandlaje asked the activists of the party to be united at all times and concentrate on Council Polls.

MLAs S.A. Ramdas, L. Nagendra, Niranjan Kumar, Harshavardhan and Kumar Bangarappa, City BJP President Dr. B.H. Manjunath, District President M. Shivanna and others were present.

CM-designate HDK continues temple run

Admitting that leading a coalition government without any hitches was a big challenge, Kumaraswamy, referring to BJP leader B. Sriramulu's remark that he would not let the government sleep, reacted that nobody can prevent him (HDK) from sleeping.

Later, HDK began his temple run by visiting Lakshminarasimhaswamy temple and Shiva temple at his native village Haradanahalli in Holenarsipur taluk and then Mavinakere Ranganatha temple.

The CM-designate later flew back to Bengaluru from where he left for New Delhi by a special flight, where he is scheduled to meet Rahul Gandhi at the latter's Tughlaq Road residence at 2.30 pm, followed by a meeting with Sonia Gandhi at 10 Janpath during which he will discuss trust vote and Cabinet formation, besides inviting the two leaders for his swearing-in ceremony scheduled to take place in front of Vidhana Soudha at Bengaluru in the forenoon of May 23 (Wednesday).

Later in the day, Kumaraswamy is also scheduled to meet BSP Supremo, the party which the JD(S) had entered into a pre-poll alliance, SP leaders Mulayam Singh Yadav, Akhilesh Yadav and a host of other political leaders.

CLP meeting concludes without any decision

Even as Kumaraswamy was headed to Delhi, the Congress convened an emergency meeting of its Legislature Party (CLP) this afternoon at Hilton Hotel in Bengaluru, where the party legislators are staying after their return from Hyderabad.

The meeting is said to have concluded without any decisions being taken.

Preparations at Vidhana Soudha

Meanwhile, hectic preparations are underway in front of Vidhana Soudha for Kumaraswamy's swearing in ceremony. Several bureaucrats and officials visited the venue to take stock of the preparations, even as workers were busy erecting shamiyanas, pandals etc., for the mega event. Thousands of people are expected to throng the venue on Wednesday (May 23) for the swearing-in ceremony.

The ceremony will see only Kumaraswamy taking oath as the Chief Minister from Governor Vajubhai R. Vala. No others will be sworn-in as the Cabinet is yet to be finalised, it is learnt.

27th death anniversary of Rajiv Gandhi

The 27th death anniversary of former Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi was observed at the City Congress Office near City Railway Station here this morning by offering floral tributes to the portrait of the late PM. City Congress President R. Murthy, District Congress President Dr. B.J. Vijaykumar, former MP C.H. Vijayashankar and other Congress leaders were present.

BSY to hold meeting with defeated BJP candidates tomorrow

Bengaluru, May 21- A couple of days after stepping down as Chief Minister, having failed to prove majority in the floor of the House on Saturday, former CM and State BJP Chief B.S. Yeddyurappa will hold meeting with defeated party candidates tomorrow.

Speaking to media persons here yesterday, Yeddyurappa said that the meeting will take place at a private hotel at 5 pm tomorrow.

Pointing out that several BJP candidates had lost by a thin margin, the State BJP Chief said the meeting will discuss the factors that led to the defeat.

He further said that the BJP will chart out its further course of action once the Congress-JD(S) coalition Government constitutes the Cabinet.

Shobha Karandlaje seeks probe into dumped VVPATs

Mysuru, May 21 (MTY&DM)- Alleging that the VVPAT machines found dumped at a secluded place in Vijayapura district was the handiwork of former Minister and Babaleshwar Congress MLA M.B. Patil, MP Shobha Karandlaje has demanded a through probe into how the machines were accessed by some in the first place.

Addressing a press meet at Pathrakarthara Bhavan here this morning, Shobha said that BJP Babaleshwar candidate Vijugouda Patil had complained to the Election Commission authorities about rampant malpractices and irregularities on the polling day itself. But the authorities failed to act on the complaint, she alleged.

Now that the VVPATs found dumped lends credence to rampant malpractices, Shobha, apart from demanding a thorough probe into the matter, urged the Election Commission to order re-poll in Bableshwar Constituency and also ensure free and fair polls.

Terming Congress-JD(S) post poll alliance as the most opportunist in her lifetime, she said that the Government will not last long and would fall under the coalition's own contradictions.

Former State Women's Commission Chairperson Manjula and ex-BJP State Women's Wing President Bharathi Shetty were present at the press meet.

Vaastu-Feng Shui & Bio-energetics

By S.B.S.Surendran
Accredited Master Feng Shui Consultant

Sporting activity

Academic success is certainly important in the present times. However, encouraging and supporting a child's skill and instinct in sports would be beneficial too. Sport activities is most often seen as a hobby or for maintaining good health and most often it has not been viewed as a possible career option. Sport and leisure activity in many homes is often a focus only during the school vacations and not on a regular basis.

From the Feng Shui perspective, movement of energy known as "Chi" is vital for the well-being of occupants in a home. The same logic can be extended to the human body as movement of energy is vital in maintaining good mental and physical well-being.

Trekking, cycling and gym activities are often weekend or leisure activity and in case of some individuals, gym and fitness is more for maintaining well-being.

Achieving success in sports is easier said than done. Professional sporting activates are quite popular in present times and there are many Sports Academies and Training Centres to offer training and impart professional skills to enable the individuals to succeed.

However, if the child can be groomed and in addition to the academics, if sports activities could be encouraged, it not only creates a healthy habit and discipline but makes the child well-prepared for even taking professional sporting as a vocation.

Training the child to harness and make the most use of Chi energy would enable the child to gear up and gain a greater amount of satisfaction from the sport that they play. However, it should be such that it does not drain the child off the positive energy.

To encourage and empower a child's sporting activity, it is important to focus on the child's bedroom Feng Shui.

- Take off unwanted electrical equipments and devices form the child's room.
- Place an alarm clock in child's room and ensure the child has the habit of setting alarm for their next day wake up and routines.
- Avoid metal beds in child's room.
- Take away reflective surfaces and mirrors inside the room.

For those other than children, who wish to pursue career in sports, enhance your personal level of health, which will automatically enhance your sports abilities. The centre of your home is associated with good balance of energy and in turn good health. Hence, making these sectors vibrant will enhance the personal health which would support the sporting activities.

- Décors and colours in shades of Earth tones and shades of yellow will boost the energy in this sector.
- Keep wooden objects and decor which resemble tree trunks away from the centre sector of the house.
- Place décor like yellow flowers or small live plants in the centre sector.

Apart from the above, ensure that the sporting equipments are stored away properly and not thrown around in the bed room. Avoid storing bats, ball and sporting shoes under the bed. Sports equipment that are used in competitive sports can bring an element of adversarial negativity to the space and in turn influence the occupant to become aggressive and stressed.

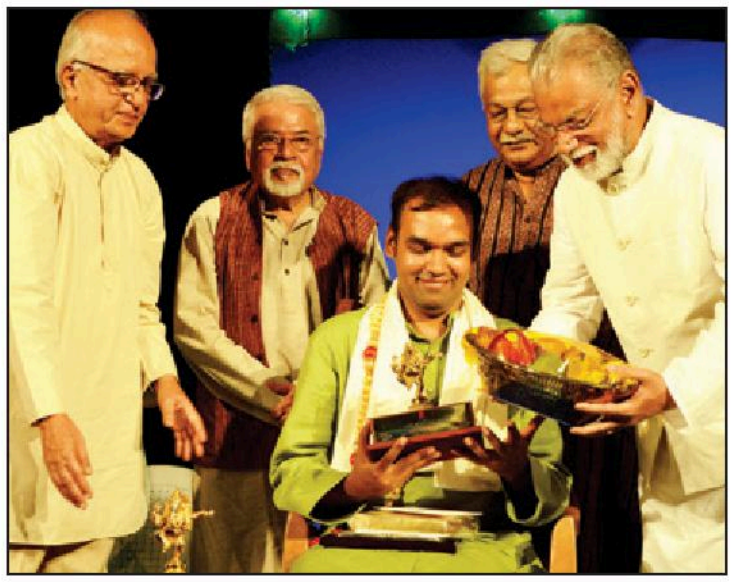
'Ananya Yuva Puraskar' to Vid. Manasa Nayana

An IITian who sought his passion



Former ISRO Chairman Dr. K. Radhakrishnan is seen presenting 'Ananya Yuva Puraskar' to Vid. Manasa Nayana during the annual award presentation ceremony of Ananya, Bengaluru, at Seva Sadan in Malleshwaram, Bengaluru, on May 13 as (from left) N.S. Krishna Murthy, retd Director, AIR - Bengaluru, S.G. Vasudev, renowned painter and H.N. Suresh, well-known painter and Director, Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan (BVB), Bengaluru chapter, look on.

Mysuru has had thick roots of art and culture since the Wadiyar times, creating a prodigious space for lineages of artistes to grow. The lasting effect of the anecdotes has inspired generations in making this heritage city, the Cultural Capital of Karnataka. The endeavour seems unabating with contemporary artistes like Vid. Manasa Nayana upon whom 'Ananya Yuva Puraskara-2018' was conferred recently.

Vid. Manasa Nayana was initiated into the profound world of Indian Music by Vidu. S.K. Vasumathi in Karanataka style. His learning pursuit continued under the guidance of Vid. Vairamangalam Lakshminarayana, a disciple of the inimitable T.K. Rangachari School. Manasa gives the credit of shaping his career in music to Sangeetha Kalanidhi Dr. R.K. Srikanthan, whom he says taught him not just music but a whole gamut of a musician's life. Currently, Manasa is under the tutelage of Sangeetha Kalanidhi R. Vedavalli. Apart from the conventional training, workshops led by eminent musicians helped him in assimilating the diverse attributes of music.

Manasa was an achiever since the inception. He stood first in Senior, Vidwat Poorva and Vidwat Antima music examinations conducted by KSEEB. Centre for Cultural Resources and Training (CCRT), Karnataka Sangeetha Nritya Academy and Department of Culture, Government of India, have aided his musical journey with scholarships.

His ceaseless dedication ushered him to prestigious stages across India such as, Nada Inbam, Music Club-IIT Madras, Nalinakanti (Chennai), Ananya, Malleshwaram Sangeetha Sabha, Kalabhivardhana, Praharshini, Indian Institute for World Culture (Bangalore), BITS Pilani Goa (Goa), JSS Sangeetha Sabha, Ganabharathi (Mysuru), Matangi's School of Music (Kottayam), Kannambulli Temple Festival (Palakkad), Murugan Ashramam (Tanjore), South Central Zone Cultural Centre (Vijayanagaram and Mehboob Nagar), Sangeetha Parishath (Mangaluru), Gana Sudha (Hubballi), Raga Dhana (Udupi), Alva's Nudisiri (Moodbidri) and so on. He is a B-High graded artiste of AIR and has been a regular performer of Classical music, Light Classical music and Devaranama programmes of AIR Mysuru and Bengaluru for 20 years now. He also takes numerous music festivals to the record of his fervent involvements as an organiser.

Academically sound too, Manasa was a topper all through his schooling and University days. He received an M.Sc degree in Mathematics from IIT Madras and was soon offered with an MS-Ph.D Programme from the Indian Institute of Science, Bengaluru. After a year of his research, Manasa realised that his interest belonged elsewhere. His passion then took to wings in moulding him into a fine music professional. Indeed, his calibre, commitment and mettle has brought him the much deserved Ananya award today.

Dr. Raghavendra, a geologist and an art connoisseur, is the prime driving force of Ananya, a non-profit cultural organisation. His undying admiration towards Indian art transformed into a tangible venture as Ananya in 1995 and his effort ever since is laudable. Manasa Nayana has served as a member of Karnataka Sangeetha Nritya Academy and is currently a Member of Executive Body at Ganabharathi, Mysuru. He is married to Vidu. Archana Bhat, a Bharatanatyam dansuese and a disciple of the legendary Dr. Padma Subrahmaniam. This couple has joined forces to serve the field of Indian art with great zeal.

Rafael Nadal wins eighth Rome Masters Title

Rafael Nadal

Rome, May 21- Rafael Nadal won the Rome Masters for the eighth time on Sunday when he defeated defending champion Alexander Zverev 6-1, 1-6, 6-3 after a stunning comeback.

German second seed Zverev was 3-1 up in the decider before two rain stoppages halted his momentum.

Top seed Nadal raced away with the last five games to secure a 32nd Masters title and ensure a return to the world number one spot.

The 31-year-old also showed why he will once again be the runaway favourite when Roland Garros begins in a week where he will be bidding for an 11th French Open title.

Zverev, 21, came to the court riding a 13-match win streak which included last weekend's trophy in Madrid. However, by the end of Sunday's rain-hit final, his record against the Spaniard stood at five defeats in five meetings.

Nadal was 3-1 down at the first rain break but cut the gap on the resumption.

After a further half an hour off court during the second interruption, Nadal came back out firing, winning four straight games to wrap up the win on his second match point.

Mumbai and Punjab Lose; Rajasthan join CSK, SRH and KKR in Play-Offs

Mumbai, May 21- Rajasthan Royals needed a lot of stars to align if they were to reach the IPL play-offs. In their final group stage match on Saturday, Ajinkya Rahane's team did their bit and beat RCB by 30 runs to move to 14 points in the standings. However, they needed both matches on Sundays to also finish in a manner which would favour them.

With Chennai already through to the next stage and Delhi out of the running, Mumbai Indians and Kings XI Punjab both had a change to topple Rajasthan and seal the fourth spot in the play-offs. All Mumbai needed to do was beat Delhi (since they had the best net run rate) or Kings XI Punjab needed to beat CSK by at least 53 runs.

But somehow, both teams faltered and now Rajasthan Royals find themselves in the play-offs in their comeback season, following a two-year suspension.

DD beat MI

Wooden spooners Delhi Daredevils (DD) knocked defending champions Mumbai Indians (MI) out of the Indian Premier League (IPL) after the trio of Sandeep Lamichhane, Amit Mishra and Harshal Patel starred with three wickets apiece for an 11-run win in their last league match in Delhi yesterday.

Set a target of 175, Mumbai Indians crumbled against quality leg-spin bowling by Sandeep (3/36), Amit Mishra (3/19) and medium pace of Patel (3/28).

The visitors lost three wickets — Evin Lewis (48), Kieron Pollard (7) and Krunal Pandya (4) — in five balls at the Feroz Shah Kotla.

Hardik Pandya (27) and skipper Rohit Sharma (13) added 43 runs before they were sent back as Mumbai slipped to 122 for seven in 14.5 overs.

Ben Cutting tried his hand with a 19-ball 37 before MI were dismissed for 163 in 19.3 overs.

Amit Mishra was chosen as the Player of the Match.

CSK's beat KXIP

Young paceman Lungi Ngidi conceded only 10 runs and took four wickets before Suresh Raina hit a measured 61 as Chennai Super Kings (CSK) eliminated Kings XI Punjab (KXIP) from the IPL with a five-wicket win, a result which sealed Rajasthan Royals' place in the Play-offs last night. DD had done a favour to Punjab by knocking out Mumbai Indians with an 11-run win in the first match of the day as it kept Punjab in the hunt to take the last-available spot in the Play-offs.

When Punjab batsmen needed to fire in unison, only Karun Nair (54) showed stomach for fight with his 26-ball knock, which was laced with three fours and five sixes.

Nair's half-century helped KXIP recover from a poor start and post 153 in 19.4 overs but they needed to win by at least 53 runs to qualify for the Play-offs.

It was South African paceman Ngidi who triggered a top-order collapse as he swung the ball both ways to confound the Punjab batsmen. He conceded only 10 runs in his four-over quota and scalped key players.

CSK needed to win in 17.3 overs to snatch the top spot but they had to be content with a second-place finish behind Sunrisers Hyderabad as they could overhaul the target only in 19.1 overs.

Deepak Chahar (39 from 20) shared a crucial 56-run stand Suresh Raina (68 not out) in Chennai's win while skipper MS Dhoni, who batted down the order, scored 16 off seven balls and finished the match with a six.

Fast bowler Lungi Ngidi was chosen as 'Player of the Match.'

WORD OF THE DAY

Pogonotrophy

Pronunciation: Po·go·not·ro·phy

Meaning: Growing and grooming a beard or other facial hair.

Origin: Do not — as a British journalist did some years ago — confuse this useful word with pogonotomy. Both originate in the Greek word pogon, a beard, but the latter ends in –tomia, cutting, and so is the word for trimming one's beard, or shaving, the exact opposite of the writer's intention. Pogonotrophy, on the other hand, ends with Greek trophe, nourishment, so its literal sense is "beard feeding", though it may better be glossed as growing a beard or cultivating one. Sam Brinkley was perhaps the world's greatest authority on pogonotrophy. That's right, pogonotrophy, the science of beard growing. Sam didn't start out to be an authority. As a young man he simply became disgusted with the speed with which his beard grew. Another word in pogon appeared in the UK in August 2013 following the appearance of the BBC television presenter Jeremy Paxman on screen in hirsute state, causing his beard to trend on Twitter. He was quoted: Unless you're lucky enough to be Uncle Albert on Only Fools And Horses, Demis Roussos or Abu Hamza, the BBC is generally as pogonophobic as the late-lamented Albanian dictator, Enver Hoxha.

To be pogonophobic is to be afraid of beards, a modern creation — I can't find an example before the 1980s and it wasn't granted its own entry in the Oxford English Dictionary during its recent revision of the letter P. Together with its noun, pogonophobia, it is usually intended humorously.

THE ODD WORD

Barmecide

Illusory or imaginary and, therefore, disappointing.

IDIOM OF THE DAY

A Foot in the Door

Meaning: Achieve an initial stage; succeed with a first step.

Origin: The early uses of the term 'putting a foot in the door' are straightforward literal ones. It may just describe someone who steps over the threshold of a property, or someone putting a foot in the door in order to prevent it from closing and so continue a conversation. An early example of the latter comes in the American poet and playwright George Boker's work Plays and poems, 1856: "And he sang to his gittern of love and of war With one foot in his stirrup and one in her door." We now use 'foot in the door' in a figurative sense, with a similar meaning to 'the thin end of the wedge'. It was the technique of jamming a foot in the door to prevent it closing, used by door-to-door salesmen and political canvassers, that gave us this figurative use of the term.

QUOTE BOX

Family means putting your arms around each other and being there.
